
CIRIC has migrated to Orphea 4 and has redesigned its website

Client of Orphea for more than 10 years, the Agency CIRIC has migrated to Orphea 4 and has redesigned its website.

Photo Agency CIRIC, member of the BAYARD group, is committed to documenting the human, especially in its spiritual, political and social dimension.

Since 1984, photographers from the Agency have gained solid experience in the observation of the religious fact. Never too far and often closely related, social commitments, the fight against exclusions and development are more than ever subjects which the News impose to follow with a steady acuteness.

More than 23500 images are available online.

Selections and the current events are also accessible to visitors, in low-definition consultation: <http://www.photociric.com>
